

CONVERSATION ONE

The Place I First Called Home

REFLECTION

Our earliest homes often remain inside us long after we leave them.

A staircase.

A front window.

The sound of a screen door.

A bedroom shared with a sibling.

The street outside.

A backyard.

A kitchen table.

Sometimes we remember the whole place.

Sometimes only a corner.

1 CONVERSATION

What is the first home you remember?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 CONVERSATION

Describe it as if you were walking someone through the door.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3

CONVERSATION

What room or place in that home do you remember most clearly? Why?

4

CONVERSATION

What could you see when you looked outside?

5 CONVERSATION

Who usually gathered around the table, if there was one?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

6 CONVERSATION

What did an ordinary evening at home look like?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

7 CONVERSATION

Was there somewhere you went when you wanted to be alone, feel safe, or simply think?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

8 LEGACY

What is one detail about your earliest home you would not want lost to time?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

GAVREL LEGACY BOOK

This worksheet is from the Gavrel Legacy Book.

Get the full book free at GavrelGuidance.com

Honor Your Past. Protect Your Present. Prepare Your Future.